>> What is a Sports Activator?

Sports Activators are students who are enthusiastic about sport and physical activity, who sign up to encourage other students to get involved in sport and physical activity at College. They are usually students who are keen to develop their leadership skills in the area of sports participation, rather than being elite sportspeople.

>> The role of a Sports Activator

- Promote the positive values of sport throughout the College
- Inspire and motivate those around them to engage in sport and physical activity
- Be the student voice for sport and physical activity within the College

>> Skills of a Sports Activator

- The ability to influence, inspire and motivate fellow students
- Excellent communication skills with staff and students alike
- A committed volunteer who can show initiative and take responsibility

>> Why be involved?

- Enhance your university application and C.V.
- Gain National Governing Body recognised coaching awards for free!
- Various incentives including free kit and trips to sports events
